

ELLEN CORNETT: INTO THE WOODS

Solo Exhibit of Drawings Exploring Themes of Conflict, Misunderstanding and Absurdity

SEPTEMBER 12 – OCTOBER 31, 2020 | ONLINE EXHIBITION

Working in carbon pencil, charcoal, colored pencil and pastel, Maryland artist Ellen Cornett creates surreal tableaux frequently referencing fairy tales, poems and rhymes. While the subject matter of each drawing varies widely, common motifs tie them together and make them seem like moments in one long, overarching plot. In her solo exhibition, Ellen Cornett: Into the Woods, she presents a series of recent works where she manipulates familiar characters into mysterious vignettes exploring conflict, misunderstanding, and absurdity. Cornett has presented solo exhibitions at Brentwood Arts Exchange, Greater Reston Arts Center, Marymount University, Fisher Art Gallery at Northern Virginia Community College, and Montpelier Arts Center among others. Her award-winning work has been selected for curated and juried group exhibits at regional and national galleries, including Touchstone Gallery, Joan Hisaoka Healing Arts Gallery, Harmony Hall, Maryland Federation of Art, Nave Gallery in Somerville, MA and FeGallery in Sacramento, CA. Her work is included in both private and public collections. Cornett earned a BA in Studio Art from the University of Maryland, College Park. She teaches drawing and painting at Capitol Hill Arts Workshop in Washington, DC.
